

Changing the world

D. Lemma, P. Klang

When you give a minute
When you stop and think It ain't too hard to find The connecting link
People want the same things
We dream of a happy end
We're just caught in the same commotion
And time slips away

You say you want to make some changes
Why don't you start by making friends?
You can take a stand
By shaking a hand
If it's a change in you
Then the world is changing too

I'm changing the world today,
the world today
With a small step forward
and it's the simplest way,
we can start today
crossing lines and borders
And the change in you, means the world is changing too.

Won't you come, won't you come with me
To the World Scout Jamboree

I've got a brother that I never met I've got a sister that's not introduced to me yet
But we want the same things
We dream of a happy end
And maybe that stranger coming your way just waiting to be a friend

And if you want to make some changes
Why don't you start by making friends?
You can take a stand
By shaking a hand
If it's a change in you

I'm changing the world today,
the world today
and it's the simplest way,
is changing to.

If it's a change in you

I'm changing the world today,
I'm changing the world today,
is changing too.
